

I would love to do a Quilt Trunk Show for your Quilt Guild or Quilt Group.

This is available as a printable PDF, so you can take it in printed form to your Quilt Guild.

My name is Marcia Wachuta. I am a Longarm Quilter. I have been quilting for customers since 2003. I free motion quilt on a Gammill Regulated Stitch Quilting Machine 5 days a week and I love it!

I have quilted for several customers who have their quilts in magazines and books. Several of my customers enter their quilts in quilt shows including the Sewing Expo in Madison, the Bad Ass Quilt Show, and the Houston International Quilt Show. Recently, some of them appeared on the Treasured Quilts of Wisconsin Television Show presented by PBS and Nancy's Notions.

I free style quilt, which means I manually move the quilting machine to create free motion designs on your quilt. No computers or rulers or marking on your quilt. It is a "Unique Quilting" for each customer's quilts. No two quilts will look the same. They may be similar, but not the same.

I will bring 6 suitcases of quilts and quilted items. That is approximately 70 to 80 quilts, table runners, table toppers, place mats, and quilted wall hangings. I will also bring quilted bags and purses! Most everything that I will show will be my "Original Quilt Designs".

I design and publish quilt and sewing patterns and I will bring my Patterns and have them available for purchasing by your members after my presentation. They are also available as a Downloadable PDF through Craftsy.com.

I am available to do a quilt trunk show in the morning or afternoon or the evening, any day of the week. I prefer week days.

My presentation will take approximately one hour with questions and answers during and after my quilt trunk show. I will need 2 helpers for unloading my car and 2 helpers for the presentation and 1 or 2 helpers for selling my patterns after the presentation. Helpers will receive a free pattern for helping!

My business name is Crafty Sewing and Quilting.

My website is www.craftysewing.com.

I also write a blog and share photos of my quilts, my customer's quilts and up close photos of my quilting. My blog is Marciascraftysewing.blogspot.com I am on Instagram and twitter too as CraftySewingandQuilting and CraftySewing.

My current rate to present a Quilt Trunk Show is $225.00 (2017) (Subject to change, until you actually book the date). Contact me by Email Marcia@craftysewing.com or by phone at 608-485-1407 (Monday to Friday 8am to 8pm CST) to book a date. I will sign a contract with your quilt guild and I will have a contract for you too. I require a $50.00 non-refundable deposit payable at the time of setting the date. If I have to cancel, I will refund or reschedule the date for you.

Yes, I do charge mileage. I live in Boscobel, Wisconsin. Mileage: 59 cents per mile. If you are more than 2 ½ hours from Boscobel, I would need a room to stay overnight in addition to the mileage.

I look forward to sharing my Quilting with your Quilt Guild or Group!
